Living in harmony

Well, what a weekend we have just had a glorious Jubilee

Celebrating our Queens reign in perfect harmony

The thronging crowds were living proof that all of us can live

Alongside different faiths and creed we have such lot to give

So, let us forget the hatred that some tyrants show to others

Just give the hand of friendship to our sisters and our brothers

Let us stop the hidden envy that can sometimes eat away

And easily spoils a friendship and ruin a perfect day

To wake each morning is indeed the biggest thanks of all

To a wonderful creation such beauty to enthral
And even when we feel so low a small thing can make us smile

The Queen with lovely Paddington Bear she always goes the extra mile

And when the Buntings taken down and the party finally ends

Remember all the fun you have had with family and new friends

The hand of God is always there but sometimes we just forget

Our lives entwined with work and worry can seem a daily threat

But to unwind enjoy ourselves embrace such time of joy

Breath in the lovingness of God, Man, Woman, Girl, and Boy
