A MESSAGE FROM DAVID AND LIZ

We would like to express our deep appreciation for Sunday's farewell lunch and all the cards and gifts received, following the wonderful service of celebration to mark All Saints' 150th anniversary.

We will be in and out of Bromsgrove over the next couple of weeks so may still see you! We would also love to keep in touch via email or Facebook.

We know you will support all the clergy committed to helping out during the vacancy and will give Revd Ann Cogle a warm welcome when she arrives as Associate Priest at St Godwald's in the autumn. Hopefully it won't be too long before there is a new Team Rector appointed to lead both churches.

With love and thanks for a memorable five years,
David and Liz xx

OUR VICAR'S FAREWELL by Judith Rowe

Five years have gone just like that in a mere blink of the eye
We are now all 5 years older as we let out one great sigh
What you have done in your five years will stay and carry on Our churches here in Bromsgrove God willing will go on
New friendships have developed slowly the tide will turn
The realisation Gods great plan will dispel all our concern
It didn't start that smoothly just after your arrived
A massive virus hit the world too many people died
"Stay in" the message was sent out by Government with grim faces
You are not allowed to leave your home forget your favourite places
The doors of churches everywhere will all be locked for now
But we all knew that at the name of Jesus every knee shall bow
Then suddenly we found out Zoom could solve some of our woes
David was the techy one how he knew (well no one knows)
But suddenly we meet again sat at home we all zoomed in Just like a séance meeting someone shouts "I can't get in"
But David ever patient explained just what you do
"Move that plant that's to your left because that will spoil your view"
And we got there, and we managed, and we said our prayers and sung
That day will come and once again the church bells will be rung
And slowly we were all allowed to venture out some more
To breath the air so fresh was Gods will for us I'm sure
Despite the months of nervousness and pressure for us all
One man remained quite steadfast in answering his call
Many things were changing new ideas kept coming through Café Church was opened, and at first with just a few
But suddenly the word got round "join in and see what you can do"
There's Pizza and there's singing and then we have our prayers
If you are little or are all grown up well no one really cares
Working through this time we all saw the strength you had Keeping calm and focused through the good times and the bad
But now is your time, sad for us but new projects beckon you
With Liz and dogs and cat as well, you are off to pastures new
